

Key Vocabulary

- Family • Different • Support • Care • Love • Problem • Help • Bullying • Repeated • Physical • Emotional • Report • Same • Different • Similar • Respect • Trust • Reliable • Issues • Resolve • Breaking trust • Let down • Gender • Female • Male • Stereotype

Overview

In this unit the class will learn how to form respectful relationships with others, deal with conflict and bullying and the importance of challenging stereotypes.

Key Points of Learning

- To understand that families love and support each other but sometimes problems can occur and help is available if needed.
- I understand that all families are different
- I can explain ways in which families support each other
- I know there are people who can help if I am worried about anything in my family.
- I understand what bullying is
- I can explain some of the possible effects of bullying.
- I can identify people I trust and why
- I can explain what I can do if I don't trust someone or they break my trust
- To begin to understand the differences between people and why it is important to respect these differences
- I can identify similarities and differences between people
- To recognise that stereotypes are present in everyday life
- To understand that toys can reinforce gender stereotypes
- To explain how these stereotypes can be challenged
- To begin to understand why stereotypes are negative