

In this unit, children will think about what it means to be a part of a family and how relationships can be built and maintained. Children will consider different types of relationships and how conflict can arise within them. Stereotypes, change and loss and being respectful are also key elements of this unit.

Key Vocabulary

Respect
Conflict
Responsibility
Stereotype
Grief
Loss
Death
Prejudice

Key Points of Learning

- To understand what respect is and how to show it.
- To understand how respect can be shown within specific relationships
- To understand what a stereotype is and how to challenge it
- To understand what conflict is and how to resolve it
- To help others resolve conflict
- To understand how grief and loss and to consider how these feelings are displayed

Useful Websites

<https://www.unicef.org.uk/what-we-do/un-convention-on-child-rights/>

